INCLEMENT WEATHER

There may be times during the school year where inclement weather or other situations could cause transportation cancellations or school closures. At times when student transportation has been cancelled and schools remain open, the decision of whether or not to have children in school on that day rests with the parent or guardian. Should you decide not to send your child to school in the event that transportation is cancelled but schools remain open, or if your child is ill or late, please ensure that you call your child's school to inform them of your child's absence.

A key resource in any emergency is the DSBN Emergency Information form that you filled out at the beginning of the school year. Please let the school know of any changes in contact information or procedures you wish to be followed throughout the school year. Information about transportation cancellations and school closures will be available as soon as it is available through the following channels:

DRESSING FOR COOLER WEATHER

All students at Park School are expected to go outdoors for fresh air and activity during our recess and noon hour breaks. It is important that they be dressed according to the weather conditions and for safety and comfort. It is expected that if children are well enough to attend school, they are well enough to go outdoors, except in very exceptional circumstances. Please remember that it is also important that our students have dry shoes to wear inside to ensure their comfort and safety and allow participation in Phys. Ed.

Junior Volleyball

(written by Ethan C.)

This year was the first year in a long time that our school had a volleyball team. We had a junior boys team and a junior girls team. Each team played six games at different schools. The games were on Mondays and Wednesdays and both teams did fantastic. They came very close to winning many times and gave a great effort. Even if they were losing, they didn't give up and they kept playing hard. All the volleyball players had lots of fun. The team members were:

- Hanna C., Meagan F., Shelby G., Brooklin G., Andrea H., Alex H., Emily H., Darian M., Megan M., Meagan R., Sarah S., Ireland V.
- Nathan B., Isaiah B., Ethan C., Mason G., Henry K., Lukas K., Chris L., Dominic L., Michael S., Connery V., Alex W., Brandon W.

Park School Soccer

(by Ethan C.)

This year our Park School soccer team did an amazing job. There was one soccer tournament and it lasted a day. The tournament was at Smith School. Each team played three games. Both the junior boys and junior girls teams did fantastic. The boys team won their first game and the girls came very close. Both teams played hard and they almost won a few more games. All the players had fun and they are all looking forward to being on the team next year. The players on the team are:

- Hanna C., Meagan F., Shelby G., Andrea H., Alex H., Emily H., Darian M., Marcella M., Megan M., Meagan R., Sarah S., Ireland V.

Communication Matters

Smart Talk from your Board Speech-Language Pathologists

The ability to communicate is perhaps the most important skill your child will acquire. Communication skills permit children to make sense of their world, to express themselves, and to learn. The early school years emphasize language development, social-emotional growth, and readiness skills. The later grades involve a more complex use of language, such as increased vocabulary, more advanced sentence structure, and idioms. At home and at school, children use their language skills in activities that involve listening, speaking, reading, and writing. Good communication skills also help children get their wants and needs met and socialize effectively. To promote good communication skills:

- Look directly at your child when you speak with him/her;
- Listen and comment on what your child has to say;
- Talk together about things you do and places you go;
- Read and/or talk about books, magazines, and newspaper articles;
- Write birthday cards, thank-you notes, grocery lists together;
- Play games with your child.

Council Corner

A big thank you is extended to everyone who helped us raise funds through our new initiatives, Fund Scrip and Mabel's Labels.

Just a reminder that you can continue to order Mabel's Labels at our specially created website www.park.mabel.ca at any time. Shop for personalized durable sticky labels, clothing labels, bag tags, and shoe labels. There are also some great holiday items including return address labels and gift labels.

Fund Scrip has been successful and based on the feedback we have received from parents, we will be exploring our options to continue this including online ordering. Fund Scrip is a great way to raise funds by purchasing gift cards for everyday household items like gas or groceries. A percentage of the value of your purchase comes directly back to the school. We are excited to say that we raised $280 for our first campaign in November. Orders will be available for pick-up at the school during school hours starting December 5th. Release of orders requires a parental signature. School Council members will be arranging times for those unable to pick up their orders during school hours. Please find attached to this newsletter Fundscrip Order #2 that is due Friday, December 9th. These orders can be picked up at the school Tuesday, December 20th. Stay Tuned as we will be holding an information session in the new year to outline how Park School can benefit from doing this on a regular basis and to answer any questions you may have. We will be also introducing the opportunity to order Spiritwear sometime in the new year.

This year for the holidays, Park School Council wants to involve the students in doing something special for each other. We are planning to have a book swap the morning of Friday, December 16th. This will give students the opportunity to both give and receive.

From December 1st to 12th, we are asking each student to select 1-2 gently used books from home that they that they have enjoyed but no longer need and bring them to school. The students will in turn be able to select "new to them" books during the book swap on Dec. 16th. Students may bring in an additional 1-2 books if they wish. These books will be used for the book swap, to supplement classroom libraries, or will be donated to local charities at the discretion of Park School Council.

LITERACY TIP OF THE MONTH

As a parent, there is much that you can do at home to support your child's reading skills.

- * Don't stop reading with your children just because they can read on their own. Encourage independent reading, but keep in mind that children still enjoy being read to. Share a chapter of a book, a newspaper article or information from a web site by taking turns reading a page or section.
- * Good reading material doesn't have to come in book form. As well as reading books, let your child enjoy comics, newspapers, magazines, cookbooks, TV guides, instruction manuals, and reading on the Internet. These are all part of the world of Literacy.
- * Discuss reading. Talk with your children about what they are reading and what they think about the story and the characters. Ask them to tell you about an exciting part of a book or an interesting fact they've just read.
- * Have older children read to younger ones. Encourage your developing reader to read out loud to a younger sibling or cousin. Learning to read with expression will help them to read more fluently. Fluent reading leads to greater comprehension.
- * Keep a reading log or journal. Have your child keep a record of the books he or she has read. Creating a chart of books they have read can be an incentive to read more. Some children might prefer simply writing down the title and author and what they thought about the book.
- * Watch a good book. Read a book with your child and then rent the movie version. Many children's books and stories have been made into movies. Talk about how the book and movie are the same and how they differ.
- * Invest in a good dictionary. Encourage your child to look up words they don't understand. This helps to sharpen spelling skills as well as build vocabulary.
- * Let your child choose reading material. Children are more likely to become keen readers if they have reading choices. While fiction engages many children, others prefer how-to-books, books on a specific sport or hobby or magazines. World Records books are also popular picks.
- * Talk to teachers. Ask for input and advice from your child's teacher about your child's reading progress. They can offer you expert advice and give suggestions for developing your child's reading skills.

Wanted: In School Mentor volunteers.

*37 kids are waiting to spend time with a volunteer one hour a week during school hours. The program is about motivating kids through playing board games, reading, making crafts and shooting hoops.
1 hour a week, 1 child, 1 big reason to go back to school! Please contact Brenda @ 905-945-9353 or brendabbbs@aol.com*

KEEP READING OVER THE HOLIDAYS

In a recent analysis of the reading levels of our students, we found that many students lost ground over the summer holidays. This was especially true and most significant in our youngest students in Kindergarten, Grade 1 and Grade 2. Please keep the reading with your child at home over holiday breaks to help reduce this loss in skill. It will make a big difference for your children and their progress!

PARENT INVOLVEMENT LEADS TO STUDENT SUCCESS

Parent engagement matters. Study after study has shown that student achievement improves when parents play an active role in their children's education, and that good schools become even better schools when parents are involved. It is recognized that parent engagement is a key factor in the enhancement of student achievement and well-being.

Students are more likely to be motivated, to earn higher grades, to have better behaviour and social skills, and to continue their education to a higher level when their parents are actively engaged in supporting their success at school.

It is equally important to recognize that parent involvement takes many forms.

- Serving on school councils and Parent Involvement Committees (PICs)
- Volunteering for field trips and school activities
- Making sure there is a quiet place set aside to do homework
- Helping with the homework
- Meeting with the teachers
- Talking to your child about their day at school.

These are all examples of engaged parents. They are all contributing to their children's education. To make it easier for parents to get involved, government funding is available to encourage parent involvement. Find out more about parent involvement in schools at: Parents Reaching out Grants, <http://www.edu.gov.on.ca/eng/parents/schools.html>

TOP 10 TIPS TO HELP YOUR CHILD WITH MATH

1. Connect math to daily life – Let them know the importance of math! Talk about how you use math in your day-to-day life (at the store, in your job, around the house).
2. Counting can be fun and entertaining – Show them math can be fun! Sing songs (One, Two, Buckle my Shoe) and play games (card games, hopscotch, board games, Dominoes, chess).
3. Start Easy and Work up! – For example, after they've got counting by 1s, talk about skip counting and count by 2s, then 5s and 10s. Don't jump ahead too fast.
4. Use household items for practice – Practise adding and subtracting with objects from the house like spoons or pots and pans.
5. Tap into your child's curiosity – Go on a number hunt in your house.
6. Talk about time – Talk about seconds, minutes and hours, then count days and weeks. Ask them questions: How long until bedtime? How many "sleeps" until the weekend?
7. Practice mental math using coins – Count money or have them show you how much an item costs and practise making change for when they're at the store.
8. Play the estimating game – Estimate measurements, distances, time and grocery bills and then compare to the actual.
9. Sports and math – There is a lot of math in sports such as batting averages, points per game and save percentages (discuss these as you watch the games or read the newspaper).
10. Computers + Math = Fun (there are lots of great computer games available to explore math).

PARKING LOT AND CROSS WALK SAFETY REMINDERS

The safety and well-being of our students is a top priority for the teachers and staff at Park School. We'd like to give a few guidelines and tips that will help make our entries and dismissals run smoothly and safely at the crosswalk and in the parking lot.

- All students must be closely accompanied by an adult when entering the cross walk and parking lot area.
- Our school crossing guard, Mrs. Hensen, is employed by the Town of Grimsby. We encourage all students who cross Main Street to do so with her assistance. She will be on duty every day from 8:30 AM to 9:00 AM, 11:35 AM to 11:50 AM, 12:20 PM to 12:35 PM and 3:20 PM to 3:35 PM.
 - Please be considerate of others by parking ONLY in designated spaces; not blocking entrances and exits or the flow of traffic.
 - "No parking" signs have been installed on the west end of the building. Please abide by this signage. It is critical for this area to be kept clear at all times for emergency vehicles and buses.
 - It is essential that no vehicle be left running when the driver is not present.
- Those accessing the daycare are asked to use the lot on the east end of the building, when possible.
- Please consider picking up junior students a block or so from the school to give your children a little exercise and to ease the parking lot congestion.

Thank you so much for following these guidelines and helping to ensure our students' safety.

PARK FAMILY PHOTO NIGHT A HUGE SUCCESS!

Our second Park Family Photo Night that took place on Oct. 20th was a huge success. Ten families took advantage of the $10 sitting fee which included a free 8x10 family portrait. Each family was allowed eight different poses and were welcome to bring props and/or dress in a theme. Poses could involve all family members, just children, just mom and dad, mom with children, dad with children and so on and so forth. It was a fun event. Thanks to all the families and friends that participated.

PARK SCHOOL LIBRARY HTTP://DESTINY.DSBN.EDU.ON.CA

Is your child bringing home books to read from our Park School Library? As we know from the research from Stephen Krashen and countless others, access to reading materials is a key factor which affects student success. We are pleased to continue to see a trend of increased circulation within the DSBN elementary school libraries. In the past four years, the number of books checked out each month by our DSBN students has increased by more than 10,000 resources and it continues to rise! Our web-based school library catalogue is available at home for your child to access valuable research tools, discover links to author websites, or even find out what's new in the library!
